

QUIZ

HOW THE PRESIDENT IS ELECTED IN THE US

Put the words from the table in the correct places in the sentences.

| | |
|-----------|--------------|
| backing | battleground |
| caucus | college |
| delegates | indictments |
| nominee | turbulent |

The presidential election in November could be preceded by one of the most 1. _____ periods in American history.

There have been four criminal 2. _____ against former President Donald Trump.

To run for President, he needs to win the 3. _____ of the Republican Party.

At an early stage of the process, electors choose who they want to be their 4. _____. In most states this is done by a secret ballot, but in a few of them there is a 5. _____.

For each party, the chosen 6. _____ then go to a national convention.

Every state has at least three votes in the subsequent electoral 7. _____.

The result of the election is likely to depend on the 8. _____ states.

SOLUTIONS: 1. turbulent - 2. indictments - 3. backing - 4. nominee - 5. caucus - 6. delegates - 7. college - 8. battleground