

QUIZ

THE REAL PMQS

Fill the gaps in the text below.

The Prime Minister, David Cameron, said that when the government came to office, 1. _____ years ago, the economy was 2. _____. He said that it was necessary not just to 3. _____ the government's plan, but to 4. _____ efforts to deliver it. He said he wanted to help 5. _____ people feel financially secure and described those who run small business as the 6. _____ of the economy. He talked about giving those leaving education a real chance to 7. _____ in life.

Answers : The Prime Minister, David Cameron, said that when the government came to office, three and a half years ago, the economy was on its knees. He said that it was necessary not just to stick to the government's plan, but to redouble efforts to deliver it. He said he wanted to help hard-working people feel financially secure and described those who run small business as the backbone of the economy. He talked about giving those leaving education a real chance to get on in life.