

QUIZ

THE CELTIC TIGER STARTS TO STIR

According to what the speaker says, are the following sentences true or false?

1. Before the economy collapsed, many people did not think they would ever become unemployed.  True -  False
2. The Troika Programme imposed a number of microeconomic restraints.  True -  False
3. The Irish economy depends more on hi-tech industries than on SMEs.  True -  False
4. Pathways to Work tried to identify people at risk of long-term unemployment.  True -  False
5. The main aim of the Social Contract is to make workers aware of their rights.  True -  False
6. The government's priority is to keep people in work while companies are restructuring.  True -  False
7. Ireland needs the European economy to take off to help its recovery.  True -  False