

QUIZ

A NEW PHASE OF LIFE

According to what is said in the interview, are the following sentences true or false?

1. Steve Coogan wanted the film's story to be as close as possible to the book it is based on. True - False
2. He wanted to examine the idea of faith because he is a practising catholic. True - False
3. Coogan sees hidden qualities in older Irish women who are often mocked. True - False
4. Martin, the male character in the film, is an intellectual. True - False
5. 'To have it out with yourself' means to reject religion. True - False
6. It was central to Coogan's ideas that the Martin character should be a journalist. True - False
7. Coogan found it very difficult to find humour in the story of Philomena. True - False
78. At the end of the film, Philomena is at peace with herself. True - False