

QUIZ

FRENCH ELECTORAL PROCESS

Are these sentences about the French Presidential Election true (T) or false (F)? Watch the video to check.

1. The first and second rounds of voting take place on a Sunday.
 T F
2. The president can be re-elected a maximum of three times.
 T F
3. Overseas territories are included in counting a candidate's necessary support.
 T F
4. Candidates do not have to represent a political party.
 T F
5. The number of presidential candidates has constantly risen in this century.
 T F
6. The state will repay a part of a candidate's expenses.
 T F
7. There was a large abstention rate in round two in 2017.
 T F
8. Voting booths are open until the early evening.
 T F
9. Campaigning cannot continue after the first round.
 T F

Answers : 1. T - 2. F - 3. T - 4. T - 5. F - 6. T - 7. T - 8. T - 9. F.