

QUIZ

BRITAIN GOES TO THE POLLS

1. The rules of British elections are less complicated than the rules of ...

- a) finance.
- b) a sport.
- c) a game of chance.

2. How many constituencies are there?

- a) 600
- b) 650
- c) 700

3. Which sentence about 'first past the post' is true?

- a) Votes for a second-choice candidate influence the result.
- b) No candidate can win without more than 50% of the votes cast.
- c) The candidate with the most votes always wins.

4. Which one of these could be a candidate in a general election?

- a) someone from Vanuatu
- b) Prince Charles
- c) a convicted murderer

5. What is the best definition of a 'hung parliament'?

- a) A winning party cannot elect a leader.
- b) Two parties cannot agree to form a government.
- c) No single party has more than half the seats.

6. Can the queen vote?

- a) yes
- b) no
- c) it depends

1.
2.
3.
4.
5.
6.

Answers : 1. b - 2. b - 3. c - 4. a - 5. c - 6. b.