

QUIZ

MACRON'S INTERVIEW WITH TIME MAGAZINE

1. Which sentence best represents what Emmanuel Macron says in the introduction?

- a) He believes that the European project must change radically.
- b) He wants to participate with other leaders a new definition of Europe.
- c) He is not prepared to compromise on European values.

2. What does he say about the US, China and Europe?

- a) Only two of the three understand a market economy.
- b) Europe wants fairness for its citizens and international trade agreements.
- c) The US is a very divided society, but is the leader in capitalist economies.

3. When the president says 'it doesn't fly', he is referring to ...

- a) his incomprehension of Donald Trump's not signing the Paris Agreement.
- b) his strong disapproval of US policy on climate change.
- c) the impossibility of the US negotiating unilaterally with many other countries.

4. What does he say about the American commitment to renewable energies?

- a) Europe should do something similar.
- b) It is simply not good enough.
- c) President Trump has destroyed it.

5. His opinion is that international terrorism ...

- a) can only be defeated militarily.
- b) is not fundamentally a European problem.
- c) can be reduced by giving people hope in their communities.

6. The president says that when he spoke to President Putin they had ...

- a) contrasting views about democracy.
- b) an open discussion.
- c) a dispute about foreign influence in France's affairs.

1.
2.
3.
4.
5.
6.

Answers: 1. b - 2. b - 3. c - 4. a - 5. c - 6. b.